IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL BUS DRIVER
OF THE YEAR AWARD

It is my privilege to recognize Mr. Paul Myler, who has been honored by the Idaho Department of Education as the Idaho School Bus Driver of the Year. Paul was nominated for the award by Jeff Corrington and Samantha Steed, Transportation Supervisors, and Kelly Dial, Transportation Coordinator.

Paul has served the Pocatello/Chubbuck School District faithfully for 22 years, following a long career as a professional truck driver where he logged millions of safe miles. In his time with our district, he has continued that legacy of excellence, driving thousands of safe miles, remaining accident-free, and ensuring that our learners arrive at school safely each day.

What sets Paul apart is not only his skill behind the wheel, but his remarkable dedication and character. Paul is both a mentor and a role model within our transportation department. His colleagues describe him as the department's "grandfather figure"—someone who embodies commitment, hard work, and kindness.

He is quick-witted, encouraging, and always ready with a smile or a positive word. When he lost his wife Audrey, to whom he was married for 64 years, he continued to show up for our learners with resilience and determination. His unwavering dedication reflects his love for his role and the purpose he finds in serving others.

Paul is deeply respected by his co-workers, cherished by his passengers, and admired by all who know him. He is a shining example of professionalism, humility, and heart.

On behalf of the Pocatello/Chubbuck School District, we congratulate Mr. Paul Myler on this well-deserved honor and thank him for his extraordinary service to our district and to the learners of Idaho.

Please join me in celebrating Idaho School Bus Driver of the Year, Mr. Paul Myler.

Century High School Earns Top Rankings from U.S. News & World Report

Century High School is being recognized for academic excellence after earning high marks in the U.S. News & World Report 2025-2026 Best High Schools rankings.

Century ranked #8 overall in Idaho, securing its place among the top high schools statewide. Among traditional public schools, Century ranked #4 in Idaho, with only three charter schools placing higher.

In addition to its state achievement, Century High School is distinguished as the top-performing high school locally.

Nationally, Century also achieved strong results, ranking #1,679 out of nearly 18,000 schools reviewed, which places it in the top 11% of all high schools across the country.

These rankings are a testament to the dedication of our learners, teachers, staff, and families. Century's recognition as one of the top high schools in Idaho underscores PCSD 25's standing as a high-performing district, committed to delivering exceptional learning experiences and preparing every learner for success in college, career, and life.

The U.S. News & World Report rankings are based on factors including state assessments, graduation rates, and college readiness.

Century High School's recognition reinforces Pocatello/Chubbuck School District 25's commitment to excellence in education.
