Trinity-Pawling SQUASH

PHILOSOPHY

The squash program at Trinity-Pawling encourages student-athletes of all abilities to become better players through skill development and by improving their mental understanding of the game. Our coaches emphasize the importance of playing with passion and good sportsmanship.

HISTORY

Our squash program dates back to 1961. The five international courts of the Rock Squash Courts were dedicated in 2000 and named after Alva Rock '59, who was a large supporter of the program at Trinity-Pawling. The program has earned several honors over the years. The team came in 2nd in Division IV at the 2016-2017 Nationals.

LEAGUE

The Pride competes against some of the most challenging teams in the country: Avon, Berkshire, Brunswick, Canterbury, Choate, Hotchkiss, Kent, Millbrook, Rye Country Day School, Rye High School, Salisbury, Suffield, Taft, Westminster, and Williston. The Pride also plays in both High School Nationals and the New England Tournament.

FACILITIES

- Rock Squash Courts are home to Pride Squash and include five pristinely-maintained international courts, equipped with a state-of-the-art video capture and analysis system.
- Smith Field House - opened in 2017
- Schreiber Weight Room - renovated in 2014

FACULTY

Head Varsity Coach Frank Fritts has coached at Trinity-Pawling for 16 years. Previously, he worked with the girls' squash program at Milton Academy. He played squash at Haverford College, where he was a co-captain of their varsity program. Coach Fritts has many years of experience coaching various levels of soccer and lacrosse. He teaches in the History Department.
