TAKE A FREE SAT PRACTICE TEST

Selective colleges are REQUIRING the SAT again.

Even at so-called “test-optional” colleges, standardized test scores are an important factor in the admission process. Otherwise, why would these colleges even consider an applicant’s SAT score?

Also, it’s important to remember that students applying to colleges requiring the SAT also apply—and submit their test scores—to colleges that are test-optional.

The message from colleges is clear: SAT scores matter, and a strong score helps students get in.

Take a FREE SAT practice test at Elite Prep to see if you are ready to get into your dream college!
