ARE YOU INTERESTED IN PLAYING BASEBALL FOR NORTHVIEW?

There will be a meeting for anyone interested in playing baseball this year on Wednesday, September 24th at 8:00am in room 237.

Do you love to play Minecraft? The Johns Creek Symphony is looking for Northview students to operate the In C-PU, a musical device built with redstone in Minecraft. Seven selected students will play in the Soundcraft Pilot, a performance that synthesizes a live orchestra with the In C-PU. There are several chances for students to perform such as at The Art Center at Johns Creek, the Public Art Futures Lab Exhibition in Underground Atlanta, and more!
