From the Desk of Tim Carter:

Dear Wilson CSD Families and Staff,

As we navigate through this academic year, I want to take a moment to reflect on a powerful quote: "Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself." -George Bernard Shaw

In our learning journey, it's easy to feel like we're constantly searching for answers, who we are, where we're headed, and what our purpose might be. But perhaps the true beauty lies not in discovering a pre-existing path, but in shaping our own through effort, growth, and intention. Each day offers us a fresh opportunity to build who we want to be. Whether it's through pursuing new knowledge, nurturing our talents, or supporting one another in our school community, we are all active creators in this process. Let's embrace the challenges and triumphs ahead with this mindset. Instead of searching for ourselves, let's focus on crafting the best version of who we can become. I wish you all continued growth and success in this journey.

Have a wonderful weekend and enjoy the time with your family!
