From the Desk of Tim Carter:

Dear Wilson CSD Families and Staff,

As we navigate through the challenges and opportunities that each day brings, I want to remind everyone of a powerful message: Never let the fear of striking out get in your way.

It's easy to hesitate or hold back when faced with something new or uncertain. But remember, it's the courage to try—whether we succeed or stumble—that shapes our growth. Every step forward, no matter how small, is progress. Each moment of failure holds a lesson, and each attempt brings us closer to reaching our goals.

So, whether you're pursuing a dream, tackling a difficult subject, or simply pushing yourself outside your comfort zone, don't be afraid to swing for the fences. Let's continue to support one another, take chances, and embrace the journey, knowing that the true value lies not in perfection, but in persistence and effort.

Let's make this a year of bold steps and unshakable confidence. We've got this!

Have a wonderful weekend, and enjoy the time with your family!
