Welcome

The Central Dauphin School District is pleased to offer businesses and organizations throughout the community, the opportunity to partner with the district through digital advertising and sponsorships. Funds raised through these partnerships will support programs for our students.

About Us

Central Dauphin School District is a dynamic, suburban community of over 95,000 residents with a total student membership of approximately 12,000 students. It is located northeast of the city of Harrisburg within the County of Dauphin in south central Pennsylvania. The school district is the 8th largest school district in the Commonwealth and is the largest of the 10 school districts located in the county. Encompassing an area of 118.2 square miles, the district is comprised of three boroughs (Dauphin, Paxtang and Penbrook) and four townships (Lower Paxton, Middle Paxton, Swatara and West Hanover). Students attend one of 13 elementary schools, four middle schools and two high schools, and are transported from urban, suburban and rural areas.
