Senior Leaders Stepping Up

Varsities senior leaders deserve special recognition. Emmalyn Northway has been a consistent defensive player, receiving plenty of tough balls coming her way. Taylor Palmateer brings fiery energy and quick instincts, getting to every second ball with her excellent sets. Maddie Underwood has proven herself as a steady presence in the front row, building a brick wall against any teams attacks, and Brianna Sharp has stepped into her leadership role while also delivering hard-hitting serves that change the pace of the game. Together, these seniors set the tone for the entire program.

As the season continues, fans can look forward to even bigger moments. Expect thrilling rallies, strong teamwork, and the continued growth of both JV and Varsity as they push through their schedule.

Don't miss the chance to cheer these athletes on—whether it's in the stands at home games, or while traveling to rival gyms.
