1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

Kingsburg Elementary Charter School District utilized the Prop 28 allocation to hire a music teacher at an elementary school site. This certificated staff member provided music instruction and opportunities for our students. A part-time piano accompanist substitute was brought in to play as students sang at concerts. The District purchased musical instruments to promote student participation and installed music systems in order to properly hold a concert and/or performance. The money also provided opportunities for students to attend a vocal arts ensemble competition. The District used money to purchase art supplies for students and was able to bring in an art company to provide art instruction for our students at multiple sites.
