

CANTERBURY SCHOOL

Your school, your journey...

Canterbury at-a-glance

IDENTITY: An independent, coeducational boarding and day school for grades 9-12 and a postgraduate year

HISTORY: Founded in 1915, an inclusive interfaith community grounded in a Catholic heritage

CAMPUS: 150 hilltop acres in Litchfield County, CT, located 90 miles from NYC and 150 miles from Boston

ENROLLMENT: An intentionally small community with an average of 330 students, 70% of whom board and 14% are international students

ACADEMIC PROGRAM: College preparatory curriculum consisting of more than 135 courses, including over 50 at the advanced AP, Honors, and dual enrollment levels

FACULTY: 62 teaching faculty; 75% with advanced degrees

ARTS: Curricular and co-curricular options in visual arts, instrumental and vocal music, and theater

ATHLETICS: 44 sports teams for athletes at all levels, boasting 10 New England championship titles in the last five years

Canterbury School sees all students as individuals, encourages them as necessary, challenges them as appropriate, and inspires them to become moral leaders in a complex, secular world.

See, believe, and stretch your potential

There is no ceiling on how far your Canterbury education will take you! You'll dive deep into a broad and ambitious college preparatory curriculum, where the expectations for your achievement are high, and the support and encouragement you receive motivate you to aim even higher. You'll learn to collaborate, communicate, think critically, and create innovative solutions–strengths that will set you apart in college and in life. Along every step of the way, you'll be surrounded by dedicated teachers who truly know and believe in you, helping you stretch your intellectual muscles while making exciting discoveries about yourself.

Lead with values

An excellent education is about more than acquiring knowledge. It is about cultivating and caring for your mind, body, and spirit; blending leadership with a strong system of values; and experiencing the rewards of being part of something greater than yourself. A Canterbury education is unlike any other in the ways you will grow in self-awareness, strengthen your moral courage, and realize your potential to impact the world and the lives of others.
