Submission of this form will result in a report to the Title IX Coordinator and an initial inquiry into the matter, to the extent possible, to determine whether further action is required. If this matter constitutes "sexual harassment" under Title IX, FCSD will follow its Title IX Grievance Process. If not, FCSD will follow its usual investigative process.

_____(Initial)

*Reporting Options Some forms of sexual harassment under FCSD's policy also constitute crimes under Georgia law. Due to state law, some reports may require the District to report the matter to local law enforcement and/or DFCS. However, you are encouraged to report any sex related crime that you believe you have been subjected to by calling 911 or contacting your local law enforcement agency. Individuals with questions about Title IX or its implementation at FCSD should contact the appropriate Title IX Coordinator whose contact information can be found at www.fultonschools.org/titleIX. Additionally, questions or complaints about FCSD's Title IX implementation may be directed to the United States Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights (OCR). Please check the box below indicating that you understand all reporting options. (Required)

_____ (Initial)

Supportive Measures In the case of sexual harassment under Title IX, whether a complaint is filed, parties may have the right to certain supportive measures such as a change in class schedule, class assignment, extra-curriculars or a No Contact Order (prohibiting contact between the parties to the greatest extent possible). Academic relief may also be available. Supportive measures are non-punitive and designed to preserve access to District programs. Any supportive measures provided will be confidentially maintained, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality will not impair the District's ability to provide the supportive measures. (Required)

_____ (Initial)

Anti-Retaliation FCSD expressly prohibits retaliation against anyone who: 1) in good faith reports what they believe is sexual harassment, 2) participates in any investigation or proceeding under the sexual harassment policy, or 3) opposes conduct that they believe to violate this policy. Retaliation includes intimidation, harassment, threats, or other adverse action or speech against the person who reported the misconduct, the parties, and their witnesses. Retaliatory conduct should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator immediately. (Required)
