Middle School Criteria to Participate in Co-curricular Events

The Central Unified School District has identified standards for eligibility to participate in special events (i.e, Pep Rallies, Carnivals, Dances, Field Trips, and Ceremonies).

These requirements are for participation in co-curricular activities and special events.

1. Academic Standard*

- a. Minimum of 2.0 cumulative GPA in all core (including PE) and elective classes based on the most recent reporting period.

2. Conduct Standard*

- a. Three (3) full-day suspensions will cause a student to be ineligible at any point in the year. (3 separate incidents)
- b. Any suspension in the 4th quarter makes students eligible for activities at the end of the year.
- c. If a student is on the non-privilege list or placed in the Opportunity Program when the event is scheduled, then the student will be ineligible to participate.

3. Attendance Standard*

- a. Students may not have more than 10 full-day absences.
- b. Of the 10 full-day absences, students may not have more than 3 unexcused absences.
- c. Students may not have more than 10 unexcused class periods.
- d. Absences due to a student on an independent study contract will be counted in the 10 full-day allowance if the contract is not fulfilled.
- e. Long-term illness should be addressed with home school or home hospital contracts.
- f. Make-up days may be available by attending Saturday School. Saturday School attended will not replace absences on a student's official record of attendance. (See Vice Principal or Principal)
- g. Students must attend school on the day of the activity.
