Learning Statement

Today we are going to talk about feelings. Everyone's feelings get hurt sometimes. It doesn't feel good when people laugh at you, or say harsh words, or enter your personal space.

Today we are going to learn how we can respect each other's differences without being hurtful.

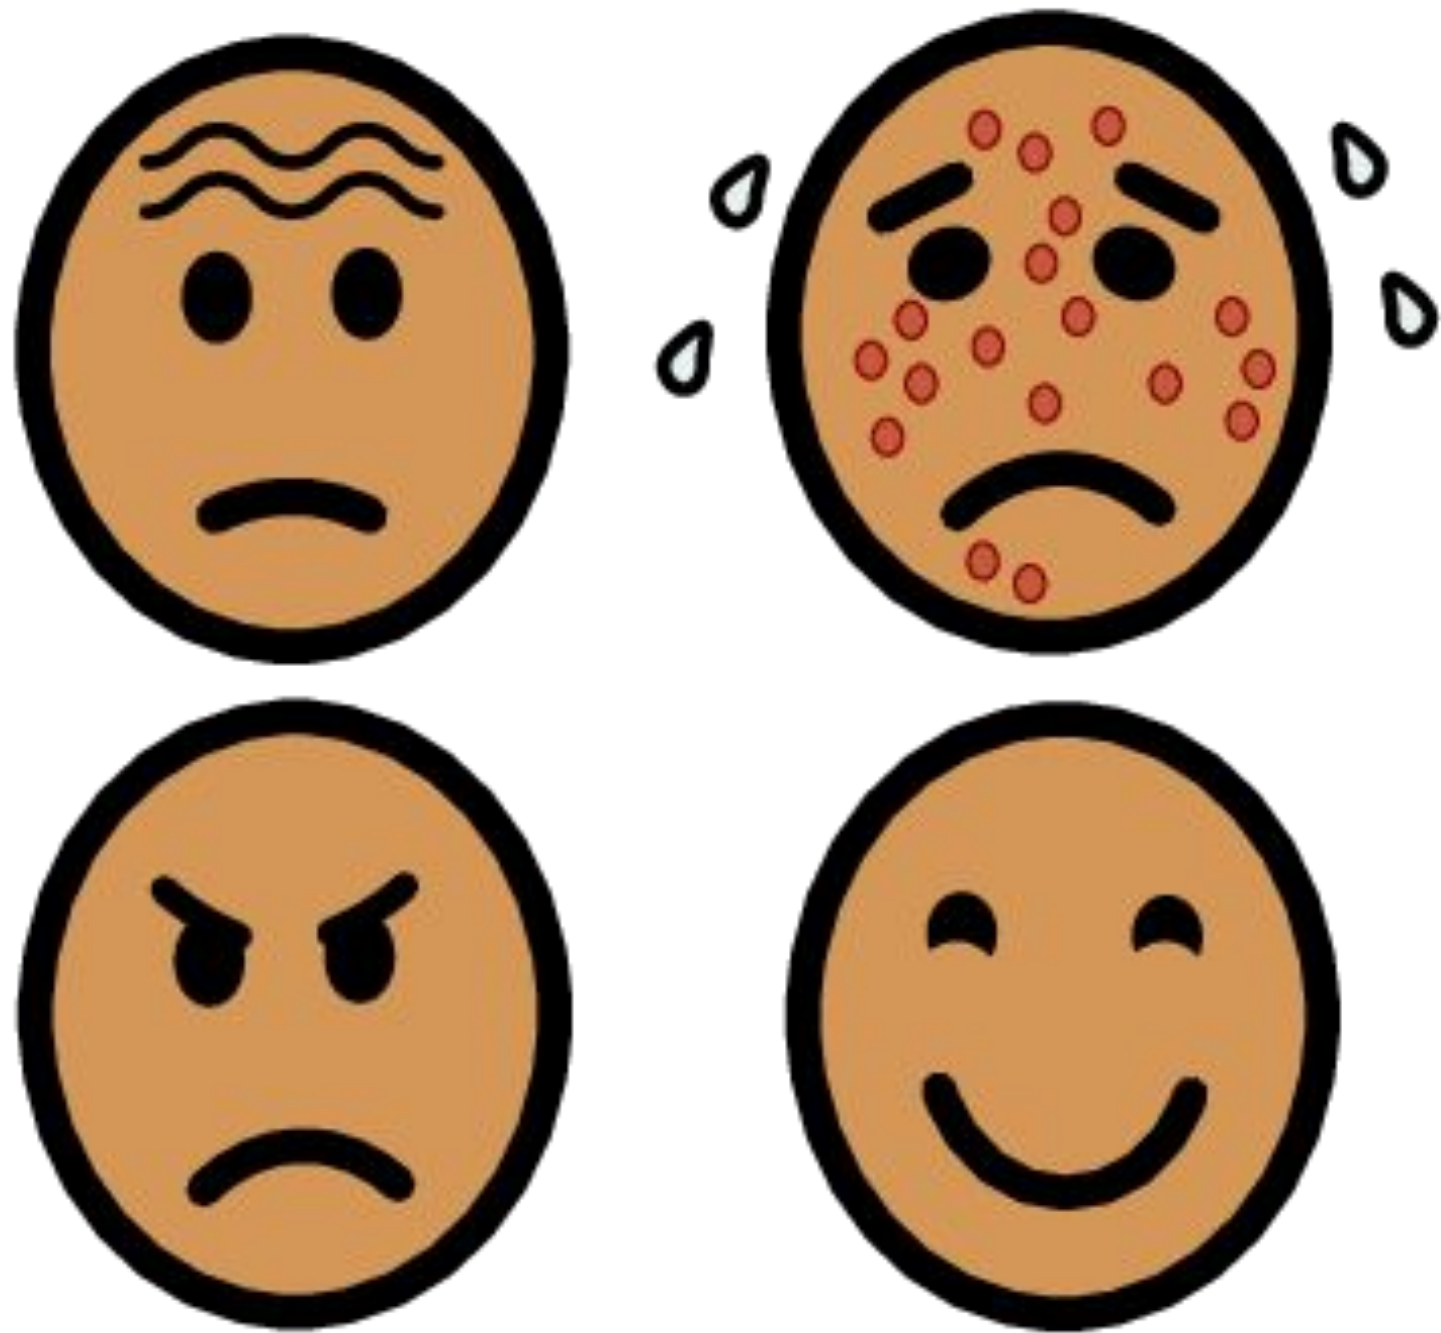

Vocabulary

Bully

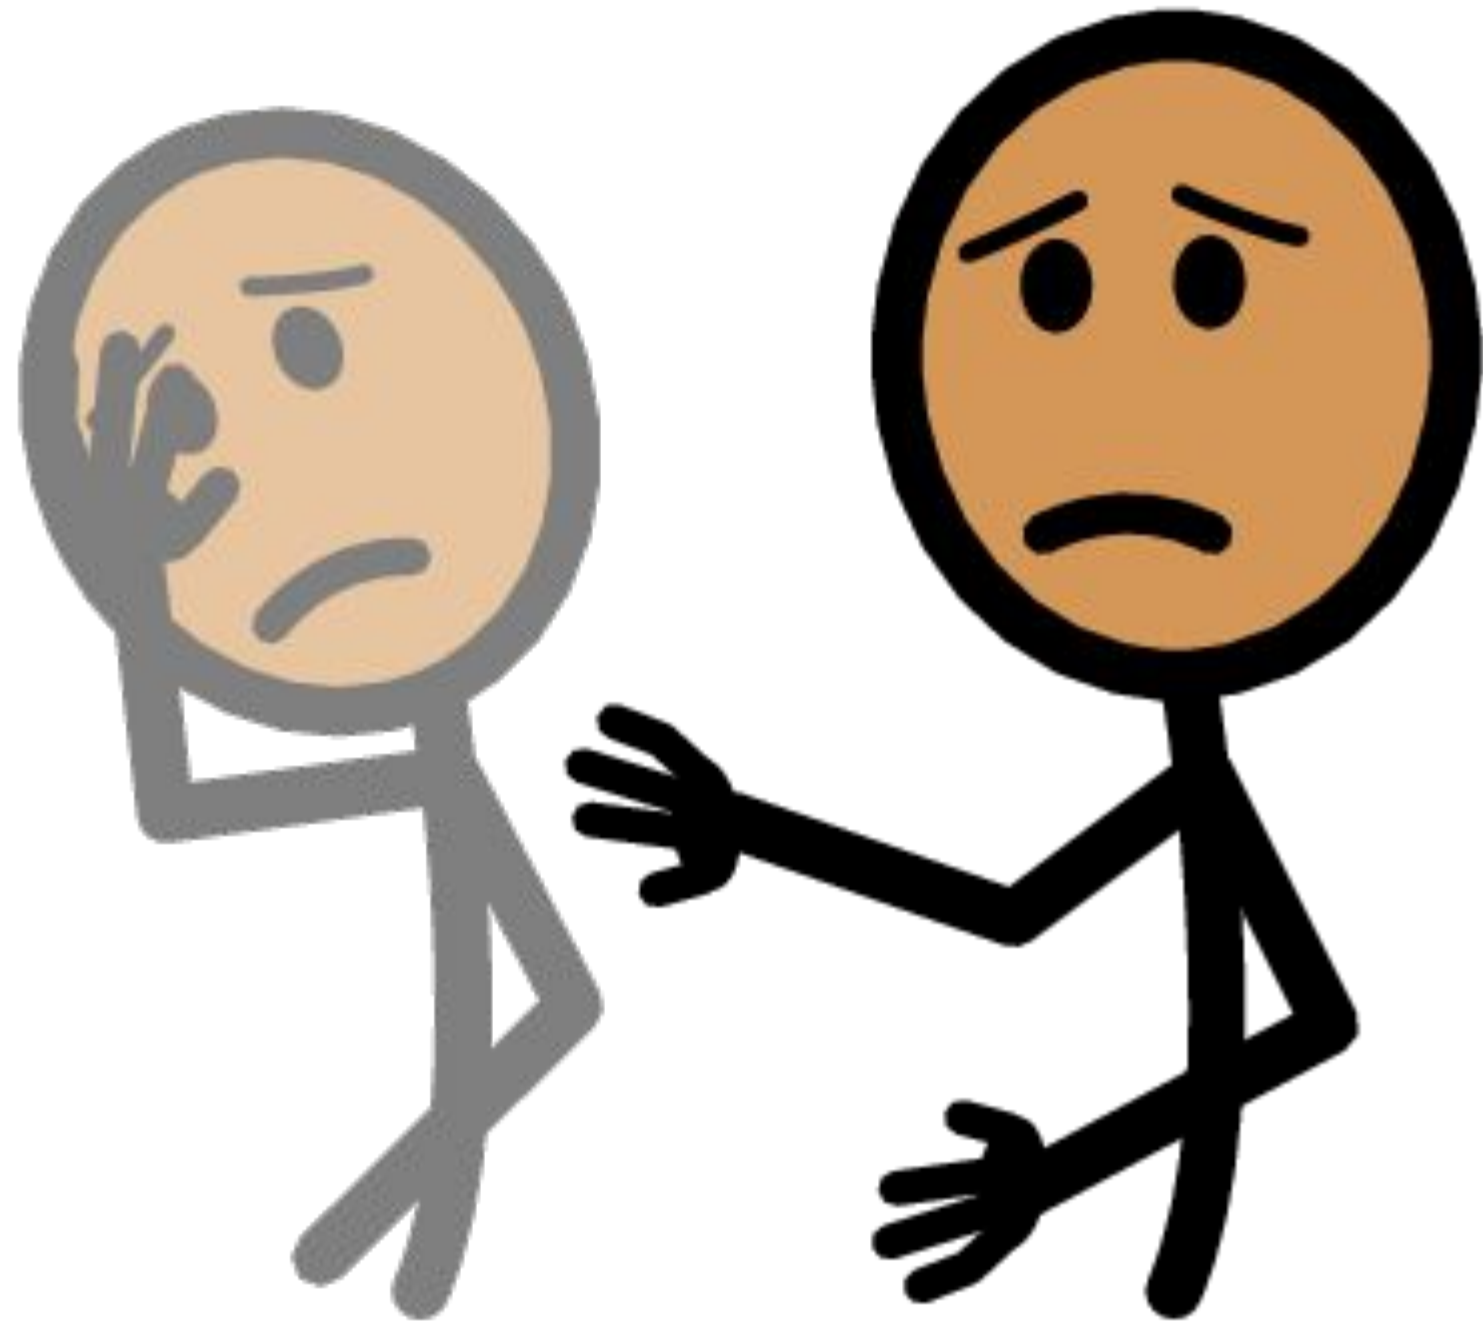

A bully is a person who purposely tries to hurt others.

STORY TIME

Repeated Storyline:

Be kind and not a bully, even if someone is different.

Now, let's listen to a story read aloud to learn about being a friend instead of being a bully so we don't hurt people's feelings.

Remember:

Your words and actions
can hurt other people's feelings.

Harassment

Harassment is when someone keeps being mean or unkind to another person on purpose, making them feel sad or hurt.

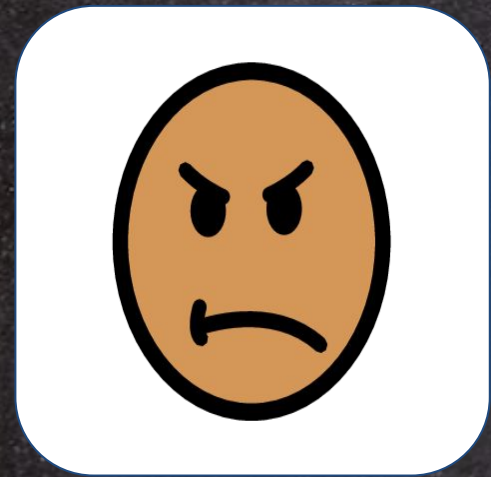

Remember:

Always be kind to others
and try to understand how they might feel.

Gender Harassment

Gender Harassment is when someone is mean to another person just because they are a boy or a girl. Everyone should be kind to each other, no matter if they are a boy or a girl.

Remember:

If you see someone who is feeling sad or upset, you can show empathy by being kind and asking if they need help or if you can play with them.
