Dear Parent / Guardian:

We value your role in working to help your child achieve high academic standards. The following is an outline of some of the ways you and the school staff can build and maintain a partnership to share the responsibility for supporting your child's learning.

School's Responsibility:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and learning materials to help children achieve rigorous academic standards
- Provide a safe and supportive learning environment
- Provide you with assistance in understanding academic achievement standards and assessments, and how to monitor your child's progress
- Provide opportunities for ongoing communication between you and teachers through, at a minimum:
    - Annual parent-teacher conferences
    - Frequent reporting regarding your child's progress
    - Maintaining updated grades in Skyward
    - Houston Happening Weekly Newsletter and Schoology calendars
    - Opportunities to talk to staff and schedule parent conferences

Parents' Responsibility:

- Encourage your child to attend school regularly
- Encourage your child to show positive school behavior
- Review your child's homework and graded assignments
- Monitor screen time and encourage positive use of your child's extracurricular time
- Join the HHS PTO
- Attend parent-teacher conferences and participate, when appropriate, in decisions relating to your child's education.

Student's Responsibility:

- Talk with my family about what I am learning at school
- Inform parents and teachers when you need help academically, socially, or emotionally
- Come to school prepared and ready to learn.

Please review this School-Parent Compact with your child. This School-Parent Compact may be discussed with you during a parent-teacher conference as it relates to your child's school progress.

Thank you for your support and involvement in your child's education. For more information, please contact Candace Plaisance, the HHS Title I Coordinator, at Candace.Plaisance@gmsdk12.org.
