"The possibilities of education multiply when students and faculty have access to...original works of art."

—BURT CHERNOW,
founder of Westport
Schools Art Collection,
1965

The mission of the Westport Public Art Collections is to surround students and residents with a visually stimulating arts environment. Artworks are on view in the hallways and offices of all Westport's schools and town buildings so our children, staff, and residents experience them every day.

What's in the collection?

Over 2,000 artworks—paintings, drawings, prints, cartoons, photographs and sculptures. The collection is available to teachers, students and Art Smart volunteers to integrate into their curriculum.

Please join Friends of WestPAC in celebrating the 60th Anniversary of the Westport Public Art Collections! Your gift of $60 or more will directly fund the annual care, framing, conservation and educational use of the Collections.
