

Religious Studies

Taught through 3 disciplines: Theology, Philosophy and Ethics

Department aim: to develop and master

Critical thinking and analysis skills

Religious literacy

Effective verbal and written communication

Self-reflection and self-awareness

Marx

Secularism

Gender

Pluralism and theology / society

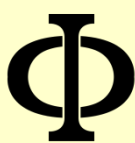

Religious language

Nature of God

Applied ethics

Conscience

Ethical language

13

Normative ethics

Applied ethics

Ancient philosophy

The existence of God

God and the world

Insight

Foundations

Living

12

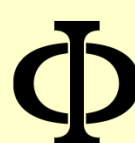

Revision

Crime and punishment

War and conflict

Living the Muslim life

Muslim beliefs

11

10

Christian beliefs

Living the Christian life

Philosophy of religion

Social justice and equality

Can God survive the problem of evil?

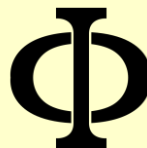

How has the concept of family changed?

How valuable is the world?

How valuable is life?

Does goodness exist?

9

What do the Dharmic Faiths teach about God?

Can philosophy prove the existence of God?

Is religion a force for good?

8

How should we treat others?

Why do we ask big questions?

What do the Abrahamic faiths teach about God?

7