RULES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Advisor: As your advisors, we are dedicated to your success, the success of the livestock team, and the welfare of the animals that represent our team. As your advisors, we will

- Lead the selection & purchasing process for student animal projects
- Provide advice on feeding, grooming, equipment, and other necessary purchases
- Provide instruction and recommendations to help students properly groom animals for show, train their animals prior to show, teach animal anatomy and facts necessary for showmanship and exhibit their animals successfully in the show ring.
- Provide students with entry forms for all school sponsored livestock shows
- Validate animals for DISD school sponsored shows.
- Ensure that all students who are competing have followed the rules and guidelines set forth in this contract & barn rules
 - The DISD teachers reserve the right to dismiss any student from the Livestock Show team on a per show basis based on eligibility, behavior, or improper care of animal

Students: As members of the DISD FFA Livestock Show Team, students will conduct themselves in a way that brings pride to our team:

Students: As members of the DISD FFA Livestock Show Team, students will conduct themselves in a way that brings pride to our team:

- Treat animals ethically at all times
- Submit entry forms for shows by due date set by FFA advisor
- Read and follow all show rules and regulations for each show in which you compete
- Follow all school student rules at all FFA show team events including anytime the student exhibits their animal as a representative of DISD FFA
- Follow all rules and regulations as set forth in this contract & barn rules
- Work with fellow show team members and advisors to maintain cleanliness in the livestock trailers, barns and other work areas as well as attend barn clean ups each year
- While at a show, arrive on time to scheduled feeding and team meeting times, remain in the areas designated by the advisors, and leave only when dismissed by the FFA advisor
- Follow all instructions from DISD FFA advisor(s), show coordinator or judge(s) while at a livestock show
- Refrain from cursing, arguing and horseplay in the barns and show ring

- Remain eligible with school to participate in extracurricular activities (i.e. attendance, grades, discipline)
- Obtain supplies necessary to show your animal (see Supplies)
- Display a positive attitude and good sportsmanship at any time you represent the DISD FFA Livestock Show Team

Other Key Rules/Responsibilities:

1. Students are responsible for caring for and monitoring their show animals on a daily basis. Advisors have the right to deny student's participation in FFA livestock shows if their animal is obviously underweight, underfed, in poor health, or in poor physical or mental condition that diminishes their show appeal, threatens the health of other animals, threatens their animal's health, or brings discredit to our organization. As managers of the DISD Ag Barn Facility, it is the FFA advisors responsibility to make decisions that ensure the overall health of everyone's projects.
2. Parents/Students may be asked to leave school or county property or any FFA sponsored event for misconduct, aggressive or disrespectful behavior towards advisor(s), parents, or for any behavior that brings discredit to our organization
3. Students must follow the DISD CTE student organization eligibility rules
4. Students who choose to attend livestock shows outside of the designated school shows must follow all school, FFA, and show team guidelines as they still represent our organization
5. In order to ensure quality across our DISD FFA Goat/Lamb Show Team, all students will have their goat(s)/lamb(s) clipped during times scheduled by the FFA advisor. If you are unable to clip during the designated times, you must make arrangements with a FFA advisor to schedule another time. Students will not be allowed to clip unsupervised without prior permission from an FFA advisor (this allows the FFA advisor to supervise, advise and ensure all goats and lambs look top notch before the show)
6. Any decisions or instructions made by FFA advisor at a school sponsored show are final. Any discussion can be directed to the FFA advisor or school district administration at a later date.
7. Attend any scheduled species meeting as scheduled by the FFA advisors

By working together as a team, caring for the health and welfare of your animal(s), and dedicating your time to practicing, studying, and grooming for exhibitions, the DISD FFA Livestock Show Team is sure to have a smooth and successful year!
