Dear Sonoma Heights Elementary School Families,

Welcome to October—a month for celebrating our community, focusing on important awareness, and, most of all, seeing our students thrive! This month is packed with opportunities for engagement, from our biggest fundraiser to crucial conversations during parent-teacher conferences. Let's make this a month of great learning and growth!

Warmly,

Scott Meihack

 Tiger Cha-Cha: Get Ready to Move! Our fundraiser is back! The title this year is “Tiger Cha-Cha!! Our goal is 18,000.00. Monies will be used to purchase STEAM related equipment and supplies. Some of the monies raised will be designated for purchasing new playground equipment as well.

Parent-Teacher-Student Conferences

Our fall conferences are a vital opportunity for you to connect with your child's teacher and review their progress.

- When: Wednesday, October 22nd – Friday, October 24th
- Student Attendance is Expected: We believe it's critical for students to be active participants in their own education. They are expected to attend the conference with you to discuss their learning goals, strengths, and areas for growth.
- Scheduling: Please check your email in the next several weeks for sign-up information to secure your time slot.

Awareness & Celebrations

Monthly Awareness Campaigns

Indigenous People's Day

October 13th is Indigenous Peoples Day. We will be Recognizing and celebrating the rich history, culture, and traditions of the Indigenous People.

October is dedicated to two important causes:

- Cancer Awareness Month: We will be discussing the importance of health, kindness, and supporting one another.
- Bullying Awareness Month: Our classes will be focusing on empathy, being an ally, and promoting a safe, inclusive school climate.

National Day on Writing

Monday, October 20th, is National Day on Writing! Throughout the day, students will participate in special activities to celebrate the power of written expression across all subjects. This year, we'll be encouraging students to write about why they love our school.

Holiday Reminder: Nevada Day

Please remember there will be no school on Friday, October 31st, in observance of Nevada Day. Enjoy the holiday!
