THURSDAY, April 30

Depart Elma this morning for Gettysburg, PA. Meal/rest stops will be coordinated between the chaperones and the bus driver. Upon arrival, you'll be at the Museum and Visitors Center where you'll have time to explore the museum and view the film, "A New Birth of Freedom." You'll then tour the Gettysburg Battlefield, led by a National Parks Service guide. Here you'll learn about the events that took place during the battle as well as see the town itself, where major parts of the battle were fought. You'll have DINNER in Gettysburg. Depart Gettysburg for your Maryland hotel and check in. This evening you'll enjoy a movie at the theater adjacent to the hotel. Following the movie, return to your rooms and remain for the night.

FRIDAY, MAY 1

BREAKFAST at the hotel. Depart your hotel this morning for Washington D.C. Meet your guide and begin the day sightseeing including an interior tour of the Capitol Building (pending confirmation) and the exterior of the White House. You'll have lunch (individual's expense) at midday as coordinated between the chaperones and the guides. Continue sightseeing this afternoon as with stops at the National Archives and Ford's Theatre. DINNER this evening followed by an illumination tour of the Jefferson, FDR, and the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Memorials. Return to your hotel following the tour and remain for the evening.

SATURDAY, MAY 2

BREAKFAST at the hotel. This morning your group will travel to Arlington National Cemetery, where you will meet your guide, and view the Changing of the Guard ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. You will also see the Kennedy gravesites and also the Challenger memorial. Depart Arlington for

Mt. Vernon, the former home of George Washington. The Ford Orientation Center and Donald W. Reynolds Museum and Education Center at Mt. Vernon will illuminate fascinating chapters of Washington's life in two state-of-the-art facilities. You'll also have the opportunity to tour the mansion itself. Depart Mt. Vernon for DINNER followed by attending a performance of Shear Madness at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. This unique comedy-whodunit takes place today in the "Shear Madness" hairstyling salon and is chock full of up-to-the-minute spontaneous humor. During the course of the action, a murder is committed and the audience gets to spot the clues, question the suspects, and solve the funniest mystery in the annals of crime. The outcome is never the same, which is why many audience members return again and again to the scene of the mayhem. Following the show return to your hotel and remain for the night.

SUNDAY, MAY 3

BREAKFAST at the hotel. Check out and depart the hotel for the Smithsonian Museum complex. The Smithsonian buildings line the Washington Mall area, and you may visit the Natural History Museum, the Air & Space Museum, the American History Museum, or any one of the other museum buildings, all within walking distance of one another. Lunch (individual's expense) at one of the cafeterias at the museums. Early this afternoon, depart for Elma. Meal/rest stops will be coordinated between the chaperones and the bus driver. Evening arrival at the school.
