POWER VOLLEYBALL

By Makenna and Jenna

HOMECOMING HEATS UP WITH POWER VOLLEYBAL

Power Volleyball Was Straight-Up Chaos (In the Best Way)

The gym turned into a full-on battleground, with teams from each grade diving, tripping, and occasionally hitting the ball in the right direction. The Prospectors brought the heat... and also some questionable serves.

The seniors came in like it was the championship game, the juniors talked big and backed it up (kinda), and the underclassmen? Full of surprises—and maybe one too many cartwheels.

There were epic saves, dramatic flops, and enough yelling to make your ears ring through lunch. Pretty sure someone spiked it into their own teammate (no names will be named).

In the end, it didn't really matter who won - because school spirit definitely did. Just kidding...the staff totally won and it was well deserved.

WHO WON?

STAFF

That is all that really matters 😂
