‘PSST! It’s PSAT. Get ready for me!’

All TABS students in grades 9 through 11 are scheduled to take a form of the PSAT at 8 a.m. Oct. 14. This free opportunity is good practice for the SAT.

Grade 11 students can also qualify for National Merit scholarships. Free study resources are available at College Board and Khan Academy. Students must bring a laptop and charger.

Awe-inspiring abstractions

Frances Perkins

From humble roots, Frances Perkins went on to serve as secretary of labor under Franklin D. Roosevelt.

She was born in Boston in 1880 and raised on a farm in Maine. She'd later study physics at Mount Holyoke, where she became a critic of working conditions for women and children. This passion led her to politics, and she became one of the architects of the New Deal. She died in 1965 in New York City. Read more
