3. District Reports

- a. Yearbook Report, Gina Roberts

The 2024-2025 yearbooks have been ordered. A minimum of 50 books were ordered. They had preorders for 42, that leaves 8 extra to sell. Should arrive in a couple of weeks. 5 high school students are interested in being on the yearbook staff. 3 seniors and 2 underclassmen who have been on the staff before. Working on 2020-2021 and 2025-2026 yearbooks.

- b. Counselor's Report: V. Garza reported

We are up and running. Scheduling of students went well with the majority coming in before the first day of school. Having a few issues with Midland College. As of this morning students were still not in all of their correct classes. I hope it is being worked on. A few Midland College representatives will be here Thursday afternoon to visit and hopefully iron out a few things concerning classes and pathways. As far as the pathways are concerned, Mrs. Lowrance has been working to get them as equally weighted as possible. We currently have 15 students taking at least one dual credit course. Every single Senior is included in this count. I believe that is a first. Working on SB 12 Parent Informed Consent for School-Based Counseling and Support Services Up and coming events scheduled thus far: September 11 Juniors and Seniors will be traveling to Fort Stockton High School to attend their College, Career, and Military Fair in the morning

September 17 we will be taking the entire high school to Alpine for Career fair at the Pete Gallego center. September 30th is set up for ACT School Day Testing - currently have 6 students signed up to take the test. Also working on setting up PSAT and SAT school days testing. We have once again been provided information concerning the Tony Gonzales internship. The
