

InstructionRole in Instruction

The Woodstock Academy Board of Trustees recognizes that its key work is to establish and promote a clear vision of student achievement. The Head of School is tasked with ensuring the development and implementation of a program, aligned to the Board's vision, for student achievement which engages stakeholders in a continuous improvement model. The Board shall continually strive to provide equipment, resources and facilities that meet the continually improving program and instructional model.

Policy Adopted: August 25, 1992

Policy Updated: June 15, 2021

The Woodstock Academy
Woodstock, Connecticut