Bailey Lehde

Bailey,

We can't believe we've already arrived at this milestone, kindergarten – 1 2th grade flew by! It's been our privilege to be alongside you while you've grown into the creative, independent, beautiful young woman you are. We are in awe of your willingness to do the uncomfortable and try new things. It's an attribute that will serve you well as you move on to your next chapter. We know you're going to live your best life with the same spirit you've always shown. We will forever be your biggest cheerleader!

Love, Dad, Mom, Colby & Kylie

Anna Robinson

Anna Grace, as a small toddler, one of your favorite phrases was, "I do it myself." Whether you were wanting to draw fully dressed in tiny little clothes, crafting massive creations with foam paper and glitter sticks, or self-sufficiently doing in front of class goals, we learned from your early steps to stand back and watch you shine. Your young self revealed the dedication and perseverance that we have come to love as part of your character today.

Throughout high school, we have had the honor to witness you charting your own path. You've made tough choices not to follow the prescribed course of what high school "should" look like and instead, put in the hard work of learning yourself and leaning into God's plan for your future. In the process, your perseverance revealed unique opportunities that allowed your passion and curiosity to flourish. We are so proud of the individual you have become, and we look forward to cheering you on as you continue to build into reality the life of your dreams.

Forever your biggest fans,
Mom, Dad, and Sophie

In this new chapter ahead, YOU are the author to make it a great story! As you begin your college journey, stay true to yourself, be diligent in chasing your dreams and ALWAYS believe in yourself the way we believe in you. We know if you work hard you will achieve your goals. Congratulations on your OTM graduation and know this is the beginning of a truly extraordinary time in your life. We love you, Ben and are so proud of you. We will always have your back and be here for you. Don't forget your way home. We wish you a future filled with love, happiness & success.
