

8TH GRADERS SOPHOMORES/JUNIORS

Powder Puff football brought more Drama than reality TV. First up, the 8th graders snagged the win with just enough swagger to remind everyone that middle school confidence is undefeated.

But the real Chaos came when the high schoolers took the field. The 10th/11th graders joined forces like some kind of teenage Avengers squad – and, in true underclassman fashion, they toppled the seniors. Yes, the seniors were teamed with the freshmen, but that's not the point.

Final takeaway? The seniors may rule the hallways, but on the field, it's apparently open season. The scoreboard doesn't lie: Sophomores/Juniors and 8th graders win.
