PSAT Testing

9th, 10th, and 11th grade students will take the PSAT at school on the morning of October 15. For 9th and 10th grade students, this is a chance for them to experience what it is like to take the SAT. 11th grade students can use this as a practice test to prepare them to take the SAT in March. Students can also qualify for National Merit Scholarships if they do particularly well on the test. Students will receive their PSAT scores in November and will be able to identify areas of strength and areas of growth to guide them toward passing the SAT. Each grade level has a different benchmark for each test to indicate if students are on track to pass the SAT. 11th graders are encouraged to sign up to study for the SAT using Khan Academy, a free resource that identifies areas of weakness and offers tutorials and practice problems to help strengthen those skills. Learn more here: <https://satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat/practice-preparation>

	Evidence-Based Reading and Writing (ERW)	Math
SAT (Spring of 11 th grade)	480	530
PSAT / NMSQT (Fall of 11 th grade)	460	510
PSAT (Fall of 10 th Grade)	430	480
PSAT9 (Fall of 9 th grade)	410	450

Seniors have several options to choose from on October 15. Seniors can come to school to get job information from Career+ and they can sign up to do a tour of Ivy Tech. Alternatively, they can do a college visit, volunteer locally, or continue their GLCA work experience. Their absence will be excused if they return to school with a note from the college admissions office, local nonprofit, or from the GLCA.

Class of 2026

Graduation will be here before you know it, and hopefully, by now you have begun to think about your post-secondary plans, whether that be a 4-year college/university, 2-year college, technical/trade school, the military, or the workforce.

Continuing your education requires you to be knowledgeable and proactive about the application process, because many schools have hard and fast deadlines that are quickly approaching.

Most colleges and universities require the following to be considered for admission: a completed online application, a recent high school transcript, and SAT/ACT test scores (sent from the testing agency). Additional information that may be required includes a letter of recommendation, a secondary school report/counselor form, and a written essay/personal statement. We encourage you to visit the admissions sites of the schools you are considering in order to learn about their specific criteria and requirements. It is important to note that both Purdue and Indiana University-Bloomington have a November 1, 2025 deadline to be considered for merit-based scholarships and some selective programs/majors. For Purdue this includes consideration for the Honors College, computer science, nursing, and vet-tech programs, and for IU this includes the Jacobs School of Music.

Are you applying to college? Documents, data and deadlines... seems like there is so much to gather and remember. But Jefferson High School has teamed with Parchment to make the process easier for you and your student.

One of the required documents you will need when applying to college is an official high school transcript, a student's academic record. Jefferson High School provides an online service where you can request an official high school transcript and send it to the college of your choice with just a few clicks.

Just follow these 3 easy steps to get started:

1. Register for a free account at parchment.com/register
2. Request your transcript
3. Track your transcript

If you have questions about e-transcripts you can contact your counselor, Mrs. Goodman-Gray, or Mrs. Bell-Davis

October is another great month for scholarships. Please take the time to view the options that are now available in the Scholarships class in Canvas.
