GENERAL OVERVIEW

Founded in 1889, Missouri Military Academy is a private all-boy college preparatory boarding academy, with a day school option, for grades 7-12 with a post-graduate year option. Located in safe and peaceful rural Missouri, MMA educates young men from around the world who seek college preparatory and career readiness programs using a military educational model employing structure, self-discipline, personal responsibility and accountability. Every student is a member of the corps of cadets. Our 360° Education™ focuses on academic excellence, self-confidence, character development, physical development, personal motivation and leadership training to prepare young men to take command of their personal lives and their future.

FACULTY

Our highly qualified and dedicated faculty are very familiar with boys' academic needs and relational teaching, and they are committed to the intellectual, social development and growth of each cadet. They provide individualized attention and assessment, guided study hall and academic advising on a weekly basis.

CLASS SIZE AND STUDY HALL

The average class has 14 cadets; many classes have less than 10 cadets. Mandatory guided study halls are held Monday through Thursday evenings, 7:00–8:15 p.m. This focused time allows for the development of personal responsibility, strong study skills, individualized attention and positive teacher-cadet relationships. Additional supervised study is also provided on Sunday evenings.

CURRICULUM

Our curriculum provides a well-rounded liberal arts education while meeting Missouri state graduation requirements. It promotes critical thinking skills and freedom of inquiry, with particular emphasis placed on speech and writing across the curriculum, STEM and Project Lead the Way, cybersecurity, business, language and fine arts. Diversity education and awareness are incorporated into our curriculum and leadership development programs; through the celebration of all cultures, religions and traditions; the encouragement of debate; and the expectation of civil discourse and respect for everyone. Juniors and seniors may take college dual-credit, trade and fine arts courses through William Woods University, Hart Career Center, and Presser Performing Arts Center. Qualifying cadets can earn college credits by enrolling in MMA's Triumph Program.

Our curriculum is designed to support our 360° Education™ and provide a challenging academic environment that supports the development of communication and life skills. The presence of our international cadet population provides a global perspective and an enriching educational experience for every cadet.

PROGRAM OF STUDIES

In order to provide diverse opportunities, our academic program is delivered through a 4x4 block, with AB option schedule that requires cadets to take four to six courses each semester.

ARMY JROTC

The Academy's Army Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) program, recognized as an "Honor Unit with Distinction," is an integral part of our curriculum, focusing on leadership and citizenship education with a JROTC Cyber Program elective. The JROTC Leadership, Education and Training (LET) courses are required for all cadets in grades 9 through 12.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY

The Koster Global Media Center supports the use of the latest educational technology. Every cadet is provided a laptop computer to enhance their educational experience and familiarity with software packages and the latest educational resources. Google Classroom is regularly used in all classes.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Varsity sports include football, soccer, cross country, basketball, wrestling, baseball, tennis, swimming and diving, track and field, and golf. Junior varsity and middle school athletics are also offered. Other activities include Scouting America, nationally recognized rifle and drill teams, Raiders, equestrian, bagpipes, band, choir, and Future Business Leaders of America.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Staff, faculty, and cadets are involved in a robust community service program. Middle school cadets are required to earn 8 hours of community service each academic year, and high school cadets are required to earn 16 hours each year. Two cadet community service days are scheduled annually to help cadets reach their service goals, and to instill an ethos of service before self.

ACADEMIC RECOGNITION

Academic achievement is recognized through the National Honor Society, National STEM Honor Society and MMA's Delta Phi fraternity, highlighting our top academic performers.

The Academy's successful Future Business Leaders of America club consistently competes and earns honors in state competitions. Our band has regularly been recognized for its outstanding performance and has earned top honors in the National Military School Band and Choir Festival for multiple years.

COLLEGE ACCEPTANCE

Year after year, MMA celebrates a college acceptance rate of 100% with our graduates.
