Snow

I'm lookin' out my window and I see a lot of gray.
Looks like it's gonna be another wintry day.
Grab my coat, grab my hat, check my app.
Yes, there's gonna be some snow, and it's comin' all the way.

first chorus:
It looks like snow. I see the snow.
Here comes the snow. Just let it snow.
It looks like snow. I see the snow.
Here comes the snow. Just let it snow.

second chorus, part 1:
Just let it snow, snow, snow, snow.
Snow, snow, snow, snow.

second chorus, part 2 (optional):
Snow, snow, snow, snow, snow.
Snow, snow, snow, snow.

The Charlie Brown flakes are falling slowly from the sky
right on my nose and on the lashes of my eyes.
Floatin' down to the ground, all around.
Yes, there's gonna be some snow, and it's really gonna fly.

repeat first chorus

repeat second chorus

Snow, snow, snow, snow.
Snow, snow, snow, snow.
spoken: Snow.

repeat second chorus

Snow, snow, snow, snow, snow.
Snow, snow, snow, snow.
spoken: Snow.

Dear Teachers…

What a complex and fun piece of music!

You'll find the choreography to be a bit simpler than some pieces designed for older singers. However, with the challenge of the rhythms and harmonies within the song (which the students will be singing), this felt appropriate.

1. Don't feel that you have to do any foot movements. A lot of the same feel can be had with simple sways and weight shifts. Picking up the feet isn't required.
2. Be creative with your groupings at the end. You can do two groups, like on the video. You can shoot for three groups right to left or from center to outside… I would suggest keeping the clappers together, the arm overhead kids together, etc. If you place them more randomly, it may be hard to appreciate the movement. Groupings can be very entertaining for an audience. Choreography can stay simple, yet have a big impact.
3. If the ball-change together with claps (found in the musical interlude) is too challenging, just step as in the introduction. You don't need the ball-change together step, unless perhaps you're trying to incorporate a difficult rhythm pattern with your students.

Happy dancing!

Melissa
