October 9, 2025

Thank you to all of the AMAZING grandparents who joined us for our Annual Grandparents’ Day luncheon! The scholars and staff are always excited to share our WRVS Community, and it’s such a warm feeling seeing all the smiling faces. Photos will be posted on our Facebook page. Thank you to our amazing kitchen team for preparing such a delicious lunch, and to the leadership of our amazing 8th graders who helped organized and served food. It was a beautiful day

Our staff and scholars have held discussions and have been preparing for the Emergency Evacuation DRILL that will take place on Thursday, October 16th. Scholars will return back to school from the unification site and will ride home per their daily routine. Here is a link to additional information on our website regarding emergency evacuation drills:

Please remember that there is NO SCHOOL on Friday, October 10th, and also NO SCHOOL on Monday, October 13th.

All Meadow Farms Fundraising Packets are due back at school on Tuesday, October 14th.

Hoping that everyone has an enjoyable and restful long weekend!

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

Our staff spotlight this week is the amazing Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Jones is a Special Educator hero at WRVS, but ultimately, she is a constant resource, support and team member to every human she encounters in a day. Mrs. Jones can be seen daily with young scholars surrounding her as she lifts their skill level, their confidence and their ability to celebrate their accomplishments.

Mrs. Jones
Special Educator

Mrs. Jones has a skip to her step all day and a warm smile on her face that makes her eyes sparkle. Thank you for all you do daily at WRVS Mrs. Jones; you personify teaming and collaborating with the scholar and their family at the forefront of all you do. You are AMAZING and appreciated!

KINDNESS NOTES

This week we are recognizing Patch Hildebrandt; thank you for your kindness!
