A Holiday Present!

Mark Binder

A Holiday Present (Stories from Around the World): A winter celebration of fun holiday stories from around the world. (non-religious themes) Includes: Christmas, Kwanzaa, Chanukah, Thanksgiving, Ramadan, Diwali, Solstice, and the New Year.

Brady Rymer

Holiday Jam! A Joyous Musical Celebration of the Holidays: bring a joyful holiday dance party to your school! With festive classics, playful originals, and a special shout-out to each grade's chosen song, this interactive concert celebrates traditions, community, and the true spirit of the season.

Cornell Cooperative Ext.

Holiday Yesterdays Child November/December only: Step back in time and experience farm life as it was in the 1870s! Students will care for animals in the barn, groom a pony, and meet sheep, chickens, and rabbits. They'll milk a life-size model cow, churn butter, and dip candles to take home.

Suffolk County Vanderbilt Museum

Season of Light: Students will explore the origins of beloved traditions of Christmas trees, yule logs, and the lighting of the menorah, while also discovering possible astronomical explanations for the famous "star over Bethlehem." This engaging program blends history, culture, and science to illuminate the season's rich traditions.
