Passwords

Password Protection

- Use a strong password that contains upper and lower case letters, numbers and symbols.

- Do not use personal information like your birthday, address or phone number.

- Change your password regularly.

- Keep your passwords secure. Sticky notes on your computer or in your desk are easy to find.

- Use a two-step verification as an easy way to enhance security.

For more information, please click: https://www.commonsensemedia.org/cybersecurity-essentials better TOGETHER

PNGISD

HONOR • PRIDE • TRADITION

1