Conductors

•Deah McReynolds (Chorus) holds a Masters of Music degree in Choral Conducting and Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Education from the University of South Florida. Deah is Artistic Director for Lumina Youth Choirs, Youth Choir in Residence at the University of South Florida. This diversified program of vocal arts sustains five choirs of boys and girls, ages 6-18, which perform locally, nationally and internationally in choral festival, concert and competition settings. She is Conductor of Lumina Stele & Voci de Lumina. Mrs. McReynolds is also Education and Outreach Conductor for The Master Chorale of Tampa Bay. This program provides in-class workshops and formal concert experiences to over 2500 elementary students in both Hillsborough and Pinellas counties annually. An active adjudicator and clinician, Deah has extensive experience working with choirs of all ages. She also enjoys singing as soloist and ensemble member with various choirs throughout the Tampa Bay area.

•Elizabeth Rook (Orff) is a product of Pinellas County Schools and is the daughter of two retired Pinellas county music educators. She is married and has two teenage daughters studying at Pinellas County Center for the Arts at Gibbs High School. She is Nationally Board Certified, receiving her Bachelor of Music Education degree from the University of South Florida and currently teaches at Perkins Elementary School of the Arts. Mrs. Rook has achieved Level III Orff Schulwerk Certification from Eastman School of Music in New York and Level II World Drumming here in Florida. She is a founding member and past president of the Greater Tampa Bay Area Orff Chapter and an active member of AOSA, FMEA & NAFME. Mrs. Rook has served on the PCMEA Board and directed the All County Honors Chorus, Honors World Drumming and Honors Orff Ensembles. In 2014 she also served as the Elementary All County Coordinator. She was chosen as the Elementary Music Educator of the Year in 2005 and in 2006, she was Perkins’ Teacher of the Year and a finalist for Pinellas County Teacher of the Year. This is her 28th year of teaching music education.

•Debbie Freeman (Drumming) is a product of the Pinellas County School System. She is currently the Music specialist at Gulfport Montessori Elementary. Mrs. Freeman earned her Bachelor of Music Education from Florida State University, holds Masters course work in Guidance and Counseling and is a Nationally Board Certified Teacher in Elementary Music. She holds level II Certification in Orff Schulwerk and Level II Certification in World Drumming. Mrs. Freeman has been married to a very patient husband and has three amazing adult children, a daughter and a son-in-law that are her pride and joy. Mrs. Freeman has served on the board of PCMEA as a North and South County Representative. She served as the All County Honors Concert Coordinator in 2015, and has previously conducted the All County Drum and Orff Ensembles. She is the Past President of the Greater Tampa Bay Orff Chapter, was nominated as Pinellas County Teacher of the Year twice and has also had the privilege of being selected as Music Teacher of the Year in 2010 and 2015. Mrs. Freeman feels blessed and honored to have this opportunity to work alongside Pinellas County’s finest music teachers and their amazing students.
