

Luis Alvarez - earned his Bachelor of Music Education and his Masters of Music from the University of South Florida. During his graduate studies, he served as a Teaching Assistant in the Trombone Studio and Jazz Department. Mr. Alvarez toured Europe as the lead trombonist for the USF Jazz Ensemble 1, performing at major jazz festivals such as Montreux, Umbria, North Sea, and Vienne. Mr. Alvarez served as the Director of Bands at Leto High School in Tampa, FL from 2009 to 2014 and is currently the Director of Bands at Gaither High School. Under his direction, his bands have consistently received superior ratings at the district and state level. In 2013, his band program received the prestigious Community Award from the Grammy Foundation. In 2014, Mr. Alvarez was one of five finalists for teacher of the year in Hillsborough County. Luis Alvarez is an active member of the Florida Bandmasters Association.

Cleve Maloon - joined Emerald Cove Middle School in January 2015 as director of bands. Previously, he was Director of Music Programs at Oxbridge Academy from 2012 -2015. Prior to his position at Oxbridge Academy, he was director of bands and department chair at Bak Middle School of the Arts from 2001 to 2012. He was the director of bands at Palm Beach Gardens High School from 1996-2000, and led the music department at Polo Park Middle School in its inaugural year. Mr. Maloon started his teaching career twenty-six years ago at Rock Island High School, Rock Island Illinois, and served as director of bands and the district's music coordinator K-12. Mr. Maloon earned his Bachelor of Music Education from Augustana College (Illinois) and his M.A. degree in Performance and Pedagogy from the University of Iowa. Mr. Maloon has been married to his lovely wife, Kim, for twenty-four years and they are proud parents of their daughters, Natalie Alexis and Amy Nicole

Don Zentz - was appointed this school year to the instrumental music faculty at the Douglas Anderson School of the Arts in Jacksonville. For the past twelve years he was the Director of Fine & Performing Arts at The Bolles School (Jacksonville). He has held music professorships at the University of North Florida, Valdosta State University, and Florida Community College at Jacksonville. Prior to college teaching, Don was a high school and middle school band director in Georgia and at Wolfson Senior High School in Jacksonville. He has performed in concert with notables that include Dave Brubeck, Ray Charles, Dizzy Gillespie, The New York Voices, Natalie Cole, Nancy Wilson, Doc Severinsen, The Manhattan Transfer, and Diane Schuur. He credits his professional success to his mentors – Bob Greenhaw, Joe David, and Rich Matteson – and to Laurie Zentz, his loving wife and soul mate for thirty years.
