Director Biography

Carlton Kilpatrick is the director of choirs at Lake Brantley High School in Altamonte Springs, FL. He holds a B.M.E. cum laude (2001) in Music Education from the University of Florida and an M.M. (2005) in Choral Conducting from the Florida State University. He currently serves as the President of the Florida Vocal Association (FVA) and has served on the board as chairman and co-chairman of District 6 (2006-2010), as well as the All-State Procedures Chair (2010-2013) and President-elect (2013-2015). Prior teaching appointments include Columbia High School in Lake City, FL from 2001 to 2003. The Lake Brantley Choral Department consists of over 270 singers in five curricular choirs. In addition, in 2012, Mr. Kilpatrick established the Lake Brantley Chorale, a community chorus for current students, alumni and community members. Mr. Kilpatrick remains active as a clinician, adjudicator and performer, currently serving as the tenor soloist/section leader at the Cathedral Church of St. Luke (Episcopal) in Orlando, FL.
