Eastern Suffolk BOCES

Eastern Suffolk BOCES Digital Generations Program

Eastern Suffolk BOCES is excited to partner with our component school districts to offer the Digital Generations Program for students entering grades 9-12. This program aims to pursue learning opportunities for their students that promote current and innovative instructional trends. This will be offered as an elective that runs each semester that curates: direct instruction to students, student-to-student collaboration across other districts, access to notable experts in the field of technology and student-based projects shared amongst each other in a culminating experience. This elective course is designed to fully incorporate the Computer Science & Digital Fluency Standards.
