Buckeye Valley Local School District Announces Military Appreciation Night

The Buckeye Valley Local School District is pleased to announce the 2025 Military Appreciation Night. This annual event will take place on Friday, September 19, 2025, at 7:00 PM.

This special evening is dedicated to honoring our active military members and veterans. The District would like to extend a warm welcome to all active military members and veterans to join us for the Buckeye Valley High School varsity football game.

As a gesture of our gratitude, all active military members and veterans will receive free admission to the BVHS varsity football game.

Attendees will also be recognized as a group and will have the option of field-level seating if desired. We invite the community to join us in supporting our team and the brave individuals who serve and have served our country!

BVLS Announces "Shine Gold Day"

September is recognized as Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. To help raise awareness and support those affected by this disease, Buckeye Valley Local Schools has designated Friday, September 26th, as "Shine Gold Day."

We encourage all students, staff, and community members to wear gold on this day to show support for this important cause. By wearing gold, you are helping to shine a light on childhood cancer.

In the state of Ohio, around 552 children and teens are diagnosed with childhood cancer each year. Show your support for the children and families impacted by it.

Mark Your Calendar!

Be sure to mark your calendar, all Buckeye Valley Local Schools will be closed for Fall Break, September 15-19, 2025. Classes will resume for all students on Monday, September 22, 2025.
