Districts are now able to cancel applications in the portal that are:

- incomplete
- not accepted
- returned for correction

If an application is "under BOCES review" and the district wants to cancel, please send an email to BOCES registrar, Nazina Chohan, at nchohan@nasboces.org.

Prior to new school year starting:

For accepted students who have decided not to attend the CTE program, CTE registrar will cancel the application after a complete withdrawal is received. Please email the withdrawal to the registrar.

VERY IMPORTANT!

Once school begins:

All accepted applications will be returned to the district for cancellation after a completed withdrawal is received for the students who have decided not to attend the CTE programs. Please email the withdrawals to the registrar.

Withdrawals

Withdrawals are time sensitive. Please complete all fields on the withdrawal form and email the registrar at nchohan@nasboces.org.

New Students or Returning Students who have decided not to attend RSIP programs for the new school year, please complete a withdrawal and forward to the registrar, as early as possible.

This will make seats available for students who are on the wait list.

Billing is based on the official roster from the 2nd week of the school year. To avoid being billed for a student who is not attending, fully complete and submit the withdrawal paperwork as soon as possible.
