➤ (Repeat from P.S.) Challenge Day Message

AHS Families,

Today was Challenge Day and I want to start by saying thank you to everyone that helped make this possible. Thank you to all staff members that gave their time to support this event. Thank you to Shamar Edwards and the entire Equity department, including our equity coordinators and advisors throughout the district, that participated today. Thank you to the PTSA for providing lunch to all of our students and adults and to all the parent volunteers that came to our school and gave up their time to do this amazing thing for us. Thank you to our superintendent for coming by, being present and showing support, and to our families for opting your students and supporting the process. Finally, to the students for signing up and showing up. Even though they were not sure of what this day would look and feel like, they leaned in and easily reminded us all of the best parts of Alameda High School

Today was a roller coaster of emotions - high energy as we began the day and some raw and very real emotions towards the end of the day that led to compassion, and honest reflection of who we are, hard things that we carry, what we have in common and the fact that we are not alone.

Bringing Challenge Day to our school is about taking charge of the narrative and feel of what Alameda High School is and who belongs here: which is everyone. I truly saw that reflected today and am honored for those that trusted the process.

Thank you everyone-it was a humbling day.

Angela

➤ (Repeat) Weekly Progress Report

Hello Families,

There is a new feature of Aeries available to you - a Weekly Progress Report. In an effort to enhance communication around attendance and grades, there are 2 changes we have implemented: (1) Daily Tardy Notification - you are now notified daily if your student(s) are tardy/late to class, and (2) Weekly Progress Report.

You may have to opt into this notification - please see below for more information and we hope you have a wonderful day!

Portal Users

When Parents log into the Portal a Notification prompting them to sign up for Weekly Progress emails appears in the Notifications, if they have not already done so.

An option labeled Parent Notification Preferences also displays in the drop-down menu when Parents click on their username in the upper right-hand corner. This allows them to sign up for Weekly Progress Report emails for a preferred day and time and adjust their notification preferences at any time.
