

PTO General Meeting – October 6th

Welcome & Introductions

- Groups discuss topic questions

Guest Speaker: School Social Worker Sharianna Frauly-McCord

- here at NP part time, rest of time at Center View as Social Emotional Behavior teacher
- SPED para for 2 years in Columbia Heights, summer school
- Masters degree last December
- Liaison between schools and communities for families
 - referrals e.g. mental health, housing assistance, clothing closets, healthcare
 - home visits
- tier 1 student support groups (not usually the IEP kids who already have groups they participate in)
- PIT crew (pre-referral intervention team) to discuss teacher-referred students who might need assistance or begin the IEP process
- Both pre-emptive and in response to observed behavior. Students take SABERS assessment. Parents can come to her with questions.

Principal Report: Tyler Nelson

- Thank you for the Fun Run and loved that it was on the field
- Family picnic was well attended
 - Can the picnic be on the same day as the Fun Run?
- Conferences are next week night of Tuesday the 14th, all day Wednesday the 15th, and flex time available
- Kids are in their groove
- Testing:
 - MAP test in older grades
 - secondary assessment for students identified in the MAP test with lagging skills: Capti Read Basix
 - DIBELS K-3
 - SAEBRS (K-4 teachers)-social academic emotional behavioral risk screener
 - mySAEBRS (2-4 grade students)
 - won't be done before conferences, but parents can bring it up
 - Number corner (K-1)
- hiring a new position at district housed at NP and Centerview-student and family advocate: Nadifo Ali

Fun Run Update: Kieran and Leah

- Numbers still coming in, but $19,700 so far ($300 short of goal)
- Increased participation – 52% of students brought in donations
- Prizes are all donated from community businesses to keep most of donations as profit
- first year of incentive tiers
- Thank you everyone for your support and time
- DJ Downs is always a hit

- Prizes will go home this week

Treasurer Report: Maria

- $7,600 cash and checks in the bank right now from Fun Run
- >$11,000 in online donations
- Staff appreciation and meals at back to school - $750
- Insurance $480 as precaution
- Subscriptions – budgeting platform and Cheddarup for PTO Hub - $301

President's Report: Kristin

- Thank you to all the parent volunteers thus far (pics, bus, fun run, etc.)
- Fall conference meals – evening meal, grab and go donations from families
- Fall festival -Nov 7 6-8 pm
 - Scholastic book fair Nov. 7
 - Donation drive for Panther pantry weekend packs Nov. 7

Involvement Opportunities: Emily and Tonya

- Northpoint PTO Hub includes volunteer sign ups
 - PTO agenda each month
 - only 70 emails so far
 - QR in each weekly newsletter
- NEW date for Winter Glow Party – January 30th – event chairs needed

Gift Card Giveaway to Churchill Street – Christina