

Expectations review:

The following expectations listed, but not limited to, will come with heavier consequences if infractions continue.

- 1] Language: foul language in general used in the building will not be tolerated. Foul language towards any adult will come with heavier consequences.
- 2] Touching: any physical touching, pushing, slapping, and “playfighting”, or any other unwarranted physical touch will not be tolerated. Unwanted touch where students have already been addressed will come with heavier consequences.
- 3] Technology: your laptop is your responsibility. Sharing, misuse, poor management (including how it is carried through the halls) can and will result in fees when or if damaged.
- 4] Tardies: students have 3 minutes to get to each class.
- 5] Main office behavior: If students are in the main office for any reason, they are to be on their best behavior. If disruptive behavior is observed, consequences will be issued regardless of original reason being sent to the office.
- 6] Café: trash, trash left behind, getting out of seat, not sitting in assigned seat, throwing any food will not be tolerated.
- 7] Fighting: as extension of physical touch that will not be tolerated, fighting will come with lengthy consequences. Any reports of instigating altercations will also come with consequences.

The listed expectations have been reviewed with all students. We look forward to seeing improvements from our students in all regards, including these listed.
