Fox Makes Friends

Fox had a good life. He had a home with a big porch. He had a nice garden. Every morning he worked in his garden. Every night he sat on his porch. Fox liked his life, but he didn't have any friends.

One day Fox picked some herbs from his garden. I have more than I can use, he thought. Maybe I'll bring some to Squirrel next door. So Fox visited Squirrel.

The next day, Fox saw Goat pulling weeds. Goat looked tired and dirty. Fox thought, Maybe I can help him. So Fox helped Goat.

Later that week, Fox saw Rabbit on her bike. She had a flat tire, and Fox helped her fix it.

Fox helped other neighbors, too. Then one day the neighbors surprised Fox. They turned up with snacks. They sat on Fox's porch and chatted. They told jokes and roared with laughter. Fox had a great day.

"I had no friends before," Fox said. "Now I have many. I made friends by being a friend!"

Part 1: Write down and explain what stretches and exercises are done daily in PE class and why it is important to stretch. Then perform our class warm-up and stretches, you may want to ask your family to participate with you.

Example: We stretch out our hamstring and quad muscles each day so that when we run we will not over exert or pull a muscle in our legs to cause injury.

Part 2: Perform our warm-up and stretches. Then write down the rules of your favorite game we have played in PE class and explain how it is played. Include: number of players on a team, how the scoring takes place, penalties, turnovers and other relevant rules.

Part 3: Perform our warm-up and stretches. Go outside and do 20 jumping jacks, Do 10 push-ups and 10 sit-ups, Run in place for 45 seconds, Do 20 squats and march in place for 45 seconds. Then create a healthy snack or meal with adult supervision.
