

COMMUNITY SUPPORT FOR NJ CHILDREN AND FAMILIES (continued)

Child's behavior or mental health	Child is displaying needs in the areas of mental/behavioral health, substance use, and/or intellectual or developmental disability	NJ Children's System of Care (CSOC) serves families with youth under 21, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On-site crisis intervention through Mobile Response & Stabilization services • Wraparound services for youth with moderate to high needs through care management organizations • Biopsychosocial assessments • Community and residential treatment CSOC also provides access to developmental disability (DD) eligibility and DD family support services.	Parents/caregivers can access the Children's System of Care by calling the contracted systems administrator, PerformCare, at 1-877-652-7624 any time, 24/7/365. Additional information can also be found on the PerformCare website: www.performcarenj.org Parents must be involved in the referral and consent process for CSOC services.
	Confidential support youth can access on their own	2nd Floor is a confidential, anonymous helpline for New Jersey's youth and young adults. Youth may download the app or text and/or call 2NDFLOOR to talk with a mental health provider about their concerns, including stressors, abuse, and self-harm.	Youth may text or call 2NDFLOOR at 1-888-222-2228 any time, 24/7/365. Live chat and additional information is available at the 2nd Floor website https://www.2ndfloor.org
	A youth is exhibiting risky behaviors	Outreach to At Risk Youth (OTARY) provides community-based prevention services addressing gang involvement, teen violence, and teen pregnancy through group counseling, parent support groups, coordination and referrals to other services, mental health services, peer mentoring, and more.	Contact the NJ OTARY provider in your area: https://www.nj.gov/dcf/families/support/otary.html
Civil legal problem	Family is in need of legal services	Legal Services of NJ provides free legal assistance to low-income people with low incomes in New Jersey for their civil legal problems.	Contact LSNJLAW at 1-888-LSNJ-LAW 1-888-576-5529, or apply online www.lsnj.org/GetLegalHelp.aspx
Care for a relative's child	Relative has recently taken responsibility for care of a child and needs help determining their legal rights and obtaining support	The Kinship Navigator program provides information, referral, limited financial assistance and legal services to people who have taken on the responsibility of caring for their relatives' children.	Contact NJ 211: Call or text 211 any time, 24/7/365 to access the Kinship Navigator program nearest you.