GCS students can now apply to a Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (JROTC) program through the Guilford County Schools magnet application process. JROTC is a leadership-based program designed to educate high school students through leadership roles while making them aware of the benefits of citizenship.

JROTC combines interesting classroom instruction with the opportunity to serve the school and the community, participate in extracurricular activities, enjoy social activities and have the chance to serve in leadership positions. There is no obligation to join the military after high school.
