Mission

Provide a single-gender education that will establish a school culture raising educational achievement in an innovative, nurturing environment where young men are offered exceptionally challenging educational opportunities that support academic development at the highest standard.

Vision

Staff and students will establish a community environment that fosters proficient learners that are able to display effective skills to become productive citizens and lifelong learners for the 21st Century.

The A&T Four Middle College is an all-male 9-12 Guilford County public high school. In 2003, the Middle College at North Carolina A&T now known as the A&T Four Middle College, opened its doors as the first all-male public high school. The A&T Four Middle College is a collaborative effort between Guilford County Schools and North Carolina A&T State University. The school strives for excellence by providing male students an opportunity for success through the use of 21st-century teaching and learning while providing a nurturing environment with engaging classroom discourse that will foster confidence, leadership, and success.
