SCHOLARSHIP WEBSITES

Student Scholarships.org – A website with a large database of an assortment of scholarships.
https://studentscholarships.org/
Scholarships.com – This free scholarship search is one of the most established and robust, tracking a reported $19 billion in scholarships. You can search by your employer to see if they offer any scholarships - businesses such as Wal-Mart and Cracker Barrel are on the list.
https://www.scholarships.com
Scholly – This is an app that matches students with scholarships based on the criteria that you enter about yourself. Cost is $4.99 a month, one of the more expensive ones, but well worth it.
https://myscholly.com
FINAID - The Go-to Guide for College Financial Aid Information on financial aid for college and tips on how to help ease the burden of college expenses. https://finaid.org/
American Indian College Fund – Provides Native American students with scholarships and financial support for the nation's 33 accredited tribal colleges and universities. https://collegefund.org/
FASFA – You must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FASFA) if you want to apply for federal and state financial aid. Many colleges and universities, especially public institutions, also require the FAFSA. You must submit the FAFSA every year that you want aid.
The FASFA is available in several formats, including online, PDF and paper versions. The best option is to complete the web-based version of the FAFSA at studentaid.gov, known as FAFSA on the Web.
You can start completing the FAFSA in OCTOBER using your parents previous year taxes. This is a Alabama High School graduation requirement. FASFA OPENS October 1.
