

BISHOP MANOGUE
CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Job Description: High Jump Coach - Track & Field

Reports to: Athletic Director, Head Track Coach

Other Direct Reports: School Administration

Overview:

Bishop Manogue Catholic High School is seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic High Jump Coach to join our Track & Field program. This position is an excellent opportunity for an individual passionate about both athletics and mentoring young people.

The High Jump Coach will be responsible for leading and developing student-athletes in the high jump event. The ideal candidate has experience in coaching high jump, demonstrates strong communication skills, and values working with high school students in a positive, supportive environment.

Responsibilities:

- Plan and conduct high jump practices with a focus on skill development, technique, and safety.
- Provide individualized instruction and constructive feedback to athletes.
- Develop an encouraging team environment that emphasizes effort, growth, and sportsmanship.
- Help student-athletes set and achieve personal goals throughout the season and their high school career.
- Support the Track & Field head coach in overall program coordination.
- Serve as a positive role model, reinforcing the values of Bishop Manogue Catholic High School.

Qualifications:

- Prior experience coaching or competing in high jump (required).
- Proven ability to connect with and inspire young athletes.
- Strong communication, organizational, and motivational skills.
- A commitment to helping students grow as athletes and as individuals.
- Knowledge of proper training methods, injury prevention, and conditioning principles.
- Must meet Bishop Manogue Catholic High School and NIAA coaching requirements.
