Carl Bradford Visits Bon View Elementary School

Former Professional NFL Football Player Carl Bradford visited Mr. De Casas' classroom at Bon View Elementary School. Carl highlighted his growth through high school, college, career as a Professional NFL Player and emphasized on the value of giving back to the community. He also shared the many college opportunities and pathways to college through academics and sports. During his presentation, students had the chance to ask the former Green Bay Player questions regarding university scholarships, his challenges, and even what famous NFL players he had met.

Bradford grew up in Norco, California, where he attended Norco High School and played football. He was named the All-West-Region list, number 16 inside linebackers' prospect in the nation. After high school, he went on to play for Arizona State University on a football scholarship and graduated with a Bachelor's in Criminal Justice in Fall 2014. Bradford ended his collegiate career appearing in 39 games with being named first-team All-Pac-12 honors by Phil Steele and second-team by Athlon Sports. In 2014, the Green Bay Packers drafted Bradford in the fourth round of the NFL Draft as a linebacker. From there, he went on playing for various teams such as the San Francisco 49ers, Buffalo Bills, Chicago Bears, and the Cincinnati Bengals.

OMSD is excited to have partnerships like these to inspire our outstanding students and show them that their commitment and hard work does indeed pay off, and all dreams can come true.
