

2026 DAR Scholarship Opportunities

The Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) offers scholarships to support education, a core tenet of their mission.

Scholarships for the 2025-2026 academic year have a due date of January 31, 2026. These scholarships are awarded based on criteria such as academic merit, field of study, and financial need.

For a comprehensive list of available scholarships, their specific amounts, and details regarding eligibility requirements, the application process, and important notes, please refer to the DAR website.

General Eligibility for DAR Scholarships:

- Applicants must be U.S. citizens planning to attend an accredited U.S. college or university.
- Multi-year scholarships require consecutive years of attendance.
- Awards are based on academic excellence, commitment to study, financial need, or other scholarship-specific restrictions.
- Award funds are placed with the recipient's college or university.

Important Notes:

- Each scholarship has specific eligibility criteria that should be reviewed.
- DAR chapter sponsorship is not required.
- Applications are typically submitted online through DAR's portal, which is open from November 1st to January 31st (application portal).
- Required documents and recommendations must be uploaded directly to the online application.
- Avoid including personal photos or handwritten documents, as this may lead to disqualification.
