Principal's Report

—Allan Dueck

Along with nurturing faith in students and cultivating academic excellence, Bethany Christian Schools adopted major program changes in 2008-09 to position the school for continued excellence in Christian education.

Christian nurture: A highlight for many high school students was meeting Shane Claiborne during Spiritual Life Week. Claiborne's youthful energy and radical lifestyle of "loving God, loving people, and following Jesus" in a tough neighborhood in Philadelphia demonstrated intense conviction that inspired students. Indeed, Bethany students enjoy wonderful opportunities daily to integrate faith with academics, relationships, and extra-curriculars. For instance, tennis coach and middle school Bible teacher Matt Miller engages players in authentic conversations about faith through devotionals, service projects, and blogging.

Extra-curriculars: Students find friends and learn important lessons for life in extra-curriculars. In 2008-09 nearly three-quarters of students participated in a school sport, and Bethany teams excelled: for example, fall varsity teams combined for a 73-36-3 record and won two sectional titles. More important than a winning record, however, is the opportunity to learn to get along and cooperate with others, develop self-discipline, and integrate faith into daily life.

The theater program featured a full-length middle school play written by teacher-director Evie Nafziger and a play and musical in the high school. As do athletes, actors learn to work together, help each other excel, integrate faith with life, and cultivate public presentation skills crucial for success in college, career and church.

Innovation: The primary focus of this year's portion of the five-year "Action Plan for School Improvement, 2007-12" was academic programming. Teachers and administrators researched best practices, visited model schools, and spent countless hours planning. The result was a substantial reshaping of Bethany's program.

Completely revamping the schedule, Bethany aligned middle and high school timetables to provide students greater flexibility in choosing courses. The faculty designed a mentoring program that offers in-depth one-on-one teacher-student mentoring in academics, faith, and life planning. J-Term, an innovative new two-week program in January provides

A Word from the Board Chair

—Randy Christophel

I'd like to highlight three important achievements in 2008-09.

• During this most difficult economic year, Bethany shared resources generously with students and families—granting an unprecedented $450,000 in need-based tuition assistance. Donors dug deep to help fund these needs, and employees helped by accepting a one-year freeze in salaries and retirement contributions. While financial challenges persist, I thank everyone who has helped Bethany weather this difficult economy.

• A task force appointed by Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Conference recommended a new collaborative process for selecting board members for Bethany and Amigo Centre, planned interaction between the Missional Leadership Team and these boards, and an increase in the conference's sense of ownership for its school and camp. We affirm these recommendations and urge their implementation.

• In 2008-09 Bethany's board took active steps to strengthen its governance. Building on honest self-assessment and counsel from Rick Stiffney, the board shifted from merely overseeing present work to thinking creatively and strategically about the school's future. This shift has energized the board and enabled it to lead more effectively.

Bethany depends on generous and enthusiastic participation of many. Thank you for sending students, serving as a volunteer, providing financial support and counsel, and praying for the school.

2008-09 Fiscal Year Contributors

The persons listed in this report have contributed to Bethany from July 1, 2008, to June 30, 2009. If you contributed during this time and your name is not listed or is listed incorrectly, please accept our apologies and notify advancement director Scott Richer. Bethany faculty, staff, and students appreciate the generous support of the following family, friends, alumni, businesses, and congregations for helping make it possible for students to acquire a Christian education at Bethany. An asterisk (*) notes donors giving $1,000 or more.

exciting for-credit hands-on learning both on campus and elsewhere—including job shadowing for seniors. And much more was achieved: the music program was fundamentally redesigned, plans were developed for more AP and dual-credit courses and a new musical theater course, and a scope-and-sequence was adopted for incorporating technology into the curriculum from grades 6-12 to equip students for college and career.

Our Mission

Bethany Christian Schools is a dynamic learning community that integrates faith development with academic excellence. Grounded in Mennonite values, Bethany equips students for Christian discipleship in the church and around the world.

Thanks to family, friends, alumni, businesses, and congregations listed in this report for your generous support in helping make it possible for students to acquire a Christian education at Bethany. This support covers the difference between tuition and the cost of education.
