HEART Program at LSU Health Shreveport

Audio	Video
[Dr. D. W. Smith] We launched a pilot program called the Heart Program. Heart stands for humility, empathy and respect training. We're here at AMI kids, here in Shreveport, Louisiana,	Montage of participants speaking at the HEART program event at AMI Kids.
[Dr. D. W. Smith] We got to just kind of connect and really connect with the community, but also talk about some things, some skills that we use, but also skills that they can use no matter what field they choose to go into that can help them now as well as in future	Dr. Smith on camera, speaks to viewers.
[Text on screen Residents painted on 'injuries' with make-up to help students to see first-hand how LSUHS Physicians treat patients with Humility, Empathy, and Respect.	Text on screen over a montage of the students acting out skits with physicians.
[Dr. D. W. Smith] Nothing is more important than speaking into your youth and being able to hopefully be able to change the future and affect the future through them.	Dr. Smith on camera, speaks to viewers.
	Group photo of the event – LSU Health Shreveport logo animation.